

Willunga High School

High Intellectual Potential Pathway

Program Overview

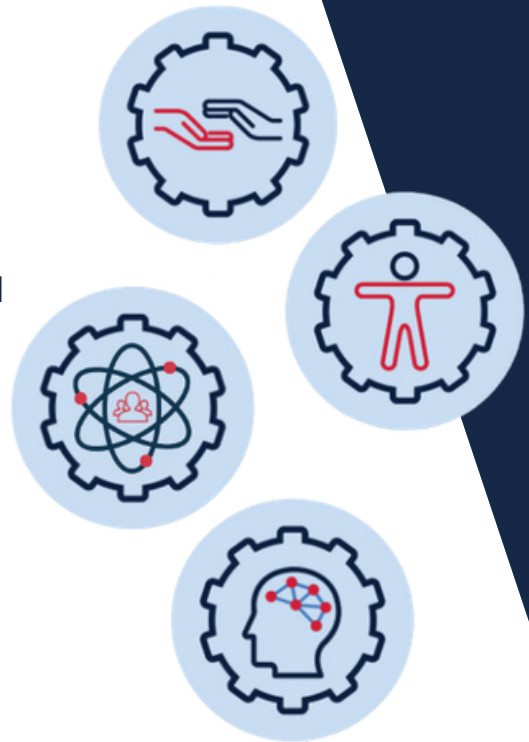

Willunga High School offers a program specifically for students with high intellectual potential.

Our school based HIPP program has been highly successful for our past students and we are excited to offer this opportunity to dedicated students in our school community. There are 15 positions available for year 7 students.

The aim of the HIPP Program is to assist students in achieving their goals of furthering their academic pathways.

Students identified for the High Intellectual Potential Pathway program are involved in:

- Enrichment activities both within and outside of the classroom/school environment
- An Individualised Learning Plan to support their classroom engagement
- Opportunities for extension in their studies (e.g. undertaking selected subjects in an advanced year level)
- STEM programs and activities
- Mentoring in the senior years to support wellbeing and academic achievement

Expected Outcomes

- Personal development and goal setting resulting in students being clear about their future pathways, and have the ability to plan for, and achieve their goals
- Self-confidence and self-management resulting in high wellbeing
- Teamwork and strategic thinking resulting in employability skills
- Students are motivated to achieve personal best in both academics and personal goals
- Connections with wider community made
- Maintain and/or improve standardised test results throughout years 8 to 10
- Maintain and/or improve SACE results throughout years 11 to 12

Selection Criteria

Entry into the program is based on students' previous academic results and standardised testing, the Gifted Rating Scale (completed by primary school teacher) and the results from the online AGAT (ACER General Ability Test).

The AGAT test will be undertaken at Willunga High School. AGAT assesses student's abilities in verbal, numerical and abstract reasoning.

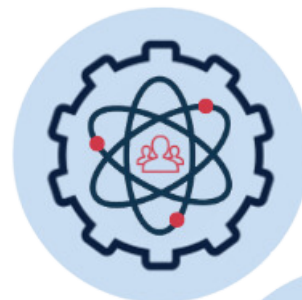

Please note that students who are gifted within the Arts and Sports domains are offered alternate opportunities/extra-curricular activities for extension. This program is selected based on students' intellectual abilities.

- Students achieving in the top 10% of their same aged peers, in standardised testing

- Students who display a high level of motivation toward their studies or area/s of academic interests and abilities

Program Levy

The High Intellectual Potential Pathway (HIPP) Program does not incur a levy, however HIPP students will represent Willunga High School during excursions, which may incur additional fees throughout the year.

Student Expectations

Being selected for the High Intellectual Potential Pathway (HIPP) Program is an exciting opportunity. If you decide to join, there are specific expectations in place to support your growth as a learner.

- A dedication to enhancing their skills and knowledge as learners
- Maintain motivation and excel academically. Fulfill all necessary tasks and aim to excel in all subjects.
- Regular school attendance which fosters community, enabling active participation in discussions and maximising learning opportunities
- Participate in extra curricular clubs outside of school. This not only promotes the school's program to the broader community but also provides students with the opportunity to apply and refine their knowledge in different settings
- Demonstrate the school values of Respect, Responsibility, Resilience, and Success when representing the school in the wider community
- Ensure you are well-organised with all required equipment, including devices that are fully charged
- Be a positive role model by demonstrating exemplary behaviour and attitudes towards learning
- Participation in excursions and incursions throughout each year
